BOTTLE REDEMPTION PROGRAM RULES

- The Barnstable Transfer Station is open 7 days a week, 7:30 am to 3:30 pm. Volunteers must be present at the drop off building at all times the Transfer Station is open.
- Participants of this program are responsible for making their own signs to let residents know who the collection is for. Do not put holes in our shed for any reason. All other containers are off limits. Please stay out of the book and battery sheds. Do not pick glass or cans out of our recycling containers.
- Please refer any residents with questions to employees of the Transfer Station.
- Organizations are responsible for closing the redemption shed at the end of every day. Please leave the collection area clean and tidy for our attendants. Please empty 5 gallon drain bucket by fence, not near shed.
- The Barnstable Transfer Station needs a count of all monies received and a count of all bottles redeemed for your month. The Redemption Receipt form must be returned with totals of all proceeds no later than 30 days from the end of your month.
- Applications will be accepted beginning April 1st for the following year and are received and reviewed on a first come first serve basis.
- We are a one way facility and entering the facility through the exit is strictly prohibited.
- Please park in the designated area only.
- Children under 13 years old are not allowed to work the redemption area at any time. Children 13-17 years old must be supervised at all times.
- Animals are not allowed in the redemption area at any time.
- The organization is responsible for transportation of bottles and cans to a redemption center of their choice.
- Organization must be based in Barnstable or benefiting a Barnstable organization or persons to be eligible for program.
- Organization must be non-profit. Documentation attesting to this must be attached to your application.
- Failure to follow the rules and regulations of the Barnstable Transfer Station will result in your removal from the bottle redemption program.
- If you have any questions please call the Transfer Station at 508-420-2258.
